FEDERAL COURT DECIDES AGAINST JACK JOHNSON

CHAMPION MUST REMAIN IN JAIL
PENDING SUPREME COURT DECISION

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Federal Judge Carpenter today denied the motion for a $50,000 bond under which Jack Johnson is held charged with violating the Mann act. The pugilist remains in jail.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—No reason exists why Jack Johnson should not be admitted to bail by the supreme court of the United States, according to a brief filed today on behalf of the government by Solicitor General Bullitt. He pointed out while the violations of the white slave act is punishable by five years' imprisonment or a $5000 fine, they are not extraditable. The bail fixed by the Chicago court was not excessive in his opinion.

RAPID PROGRESS IN REPAIRING THE SUB-STATION

PLANS CONSIDERED FOR INSTALLATION OF ADDITIONAL TRANSFORMERS

Rapid progress is being made in the repairing of the local sub-station, which was severely damaged by fire about two weeks ago. F. H. Bruce, local manager of the company, stated today that the damage would total about $15,000, although the first estimate was $5000 higher than that figure.

But one transformer was completely destroyed, and that was the one in which the fire started. The greatest damage was to the meter and chart registers situated on the switch board. The damage to the roof is being repaired and it is expected that all vestige of the fire will have been completely removed within a comparatively short time.

Plans are now being perfected for the installation of several new transformers to handle the increased business. Nearly all the new mines that have resumed operations during the past few months are using electric power and it is this increase in business that necessitates the additional transformers.

CABIN IS FIRED WHEN PAIR ENGAGE IN DRUNKEN ROW

ITALIAN IS HELD WHILE INVESTIGATION WILL BE MADE BY POLICE CHIEF

A small blaze in a cabin situated in the restricted district summoned the fire department to that location at midnight last night. The blaze, however, was extinguished by inmates of the structure before the arrival of the fire fighting apparatus. The damage was slight.

The cabin is occupied by a woman known as Irene and it is believed the fire was started accidentally. The woman and an Italian, with whom she has been living, engaged in a drunken altercation during the early part of the evening. The Italian was taken from the place by Chief of Police Smith and later on his promise to return to his home and go to bed he was released. It is believed that the pair continued their fight and also their celebration, during which time a carelessly thrown away cigarette set the fire.

The Italian was arrested by Night Officer Arthur Donahue and he will be held until a thorough investigation has been made by Chief of Police Smith.

GEORGE A. COLE MAY BE SPEAKER OF ASSEMBLY

NYE COUNTY ASSEMBLYMAN ELECT IS MENTIONED FOR HOUSE LEADERSHIP

George A. Cole of Manhattan, democratic assemblyman-elect from Nye county, is mentioned for the speakership honors when the legislature convenes in January. The lower house will be overwhelmingly democratic and that party will select the speaker.

Cole is well qualified for the position and appears to be the logical candidate. Six years ago he was a member of the assembly from this county and two years later he was chief clerk of the lower house. He is well versed in parliamentary law and would make an excellent presiding officer.

Nye county has contributed largely to the presiding officers in the legislature during recent years. Four years ago the speaker was selected from the representatives of this county, James Giffen of Manhattan being selected. Two years ago Clay Tallman was elected president pro tem of the senate, while the speaker pro tem of the assembly also came from the Nye county ranks.

STATE AUTOMOBILE ASSN. TO HOLD FIRST MEETING IN THIS CITY ON NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Automobilists and persons interested in the good roads movement will meet in Tonopah on November 18, according to a call recently issued by the officers of the Nevada State Automobile association. In connection with this meeting the Tonopah automobile club will also hold a session, the purpose being to perfect the organizations and discuss ways and means for the betterment of road conditions along the transcontinental route, which enters Nevada through Ely and passes through Tonopah.

The state association is affiliated with the American Automobile association, which is now laboring for the success of the transcontinental route. Maps have been made and Tonopah is assured of a place on the map providing the people of this section have sufficient interest to labor for the fulfillment of the plans.

The call for the state meeting to be held in Tonopah was issued several days ago. The meeting will be held next Monday night at the offices of H. E. Epstein. C. E. Patrick of Goldfield is president of the state organization; C. S. Hoag of Ely is secretary and S. R. Moore of Tonopah is treasurer.

The success of the meeting means a great deal to the prosperity of southern Nevada for it insures the passage of thousands of automobiles through this district in the next few years. Since the local club was organized no less than four transcontinental auto parties have followed the latest map and reported at the office of S. R. Moore for instructions as to the best roads to be found along the remaining part of the tour. The travelers, who are members of the A. A. A., report at the headquarters in every town and secure valuable information.

It is urged that a full membership be present at the coming meeting, and an invitation is extended to all persons interested in the movement, to also be present.

VOLUNTEERS OF GOLDFIELD LEAVE FOR THE FRONT

TWO MORE MONTENEGRINS ON THEIR WAY TO SCENE OF HOSTILITIES

The men from the Balkan country who live and work in Goldfield are still arranging as far as possible to leave their affairs in order in case they are called on to go to war, says the Tribune. They are reading the news from Europe with avidity and the possibility of the Bulgarians, Montenegrins, Greeks and Servians being drawn into hostilities against Austria-Hungary does not scare them a bit. They know, though, that in the event of such a conflict, they will certainly be needed at the front and they are awaiting the call.

Some can't restrain their impatience, however, and are starting now. Yesterday G. G. Denda and Bolozo Markovich, two Montenegrins who are well known locally, started for New York by way of the Tonopah & Tidewater and Santa Fe and connections. At New York they will take the steamship for Europe and will make their way across Europe to the little kingdom where they were born—the kingdom that started the present war.

The committee of which Nick Cosich is chairman and which has been collecting funds for the Balkan Red Cross fund, is in correspondence with New York to find out whether to send the handsome sum collected to the Montenegrin consul at New York or direct to Serbia or Montenegro in Europe. The money will be forwarded by Postmaster E. R. Collins, treasurer of the fund, as soon as this question is determined.

EASY DIVORCE LAW IS DOOMED IN THIS STATE

RENO CORRESPONDENTS STATE THAT MANY ANTI-DIVORCE MEN ELECTED

Nevada and the divorce laws of this state are again in the limelight, judging from the many stories sent out from Reno by correspondents of outside papers. It is stated that the divorce laws of the state are doomed, owing to the defeat of W. D. Jones of Reno, the democratic candidate for state senator. Jones was the champion of the divorce seekers at the legislative session two years ago and was the author of the famous time lock law.

The following story has been sent broadcast from Reno and it is believed to give the true situation as exists with regard to divorce legislation.

That the Reno divorce colony is doomed and that the next legislature, which meets in January, will change the period of residence from six months to a year with possibly a law placing on the statute books an interlocutory period of six months or a year, is evident from the complexion of the incoming legislature. Judge W. D. Jones of Reno, the author of the now celebrated Jones time lock divorce bill passed at the last session of the legislature, making a mere physical residence of six months all that is necessary to establish the right to institute divorce proceedings, was defeated for election as state senator by an overwhelming majority.

It was understood that Jones would lead the forces in the next legislature which intended to maintain the present divorce regulations. Jones was defeated in Reno, which is the center of the Nevada divorce industry. He was beaten by a farmer from out of town, who ran independent. No one professed to know Jones' opponent. His name is James Gault, and he was facetiously nicknamed "Harry Brush," because he wore long whiskers. However, he fairly swept Jones out of existence and the divorce element lost their leader in the heart of the divorce center. From all parts of the state anti-divorce men have been selected by the voters for the legislature, and a careful poll has resulted in an expression of opinion from the assemblymen and senators-elect that they are opposed to the present divorce laws, because of the reflection cast upon the state by the sneers and jibes hurled at Nevada, and especially Reno.
